

2018 FIRST FRIDAY Lecture Series

FEBRUARY 2ND

ROBIN WRIGHT

Curator of Native American Art at the Burke Museum, Robin will lecture on the legendary James G. Swan

MARCH 2ND

KEVIN BAILEY

Author of "The Western Flyer" will be presenting on his new book, "Fishing Lessons: Artisanal Fisheries and Saving Our Oceans".

APRIL 6TH

KAREN POLINSKY

Author of "Dungeness" will discuss her collaboration with sister S'Klallam tribes.

MAY 4TH

LORRAINE MCCONAGHY

History of Washington State during WWI.

JUNE 1ST

JUDITH ADAMS

Discussing poetry and reading from her own writings.

JULY 6TH

FRANK SAMUELSON & SUZANNE LAMON

Art professor Galen Hansen and his influence on local artists.

AUGUST 3RD

JUSTIN WADLAND

The rise and fall of a Puget Sound Anarchist Utopia.

SEPTEMBER 7TH

JOSH CHENOWITH

Restoration of the Elwha River.

OCTOBER 5TH

FELIKS BANEL

History of radio in the Pacific Northwest.

NOVEMBER 2ND

FINN WILCOX

Reading selections of his poetry.

All lectures start at 7 pm in historic City Hall

540 Water St.

Port Townsend, WA 98368

$5 Suggested donation

JEFFERSON COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY