

First Friday Lecture Series

SUMMER / FALL 2017

07 / 07

Author Karen Russell shares the history of Marrowstone Island, telling stories of isolated women, fun festivals, the fight for the bridge, and even a murder.

08 / 04

In a panel led by Co-op owner Gale Wallis, the Port Townsend Food Co-op cohort discuss the colorful history and counter-culture origins of the organization.

09 / 01

In "The Art & Poetry of May Macleod Pitt," Glynda Schaad reveals the true story of a woman who went to the lonely lighthouses of the Pacific Coast, to discover and create her powerful poetry in self-imposed solitude.

10 / 06

Author Theresa Schoenfall presents on the history of Sol Duc Hot Springs.

11 / 03

Carol Hasse, founding member of the Port Townsend Wooden Boat Festival and owner of Hasse & Company Port Townsend Sails, brings a panel together to share memories and stories about the Wooden Boat Festival.

All lectures start at 7 pm in historic City Hall
540 Water St.

Port Townsend, WA 98368

$5 Suggested donation

JEFFERSON COUNTY
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Marrowstone Point Lighthouse, Fort Flagler State Park, Washington

