

JCHS COLLECTIONS

Commercial Use & Fees

Commercial use fees apply to photographs or document scans which are published in any book, magazine, calendar, newspaper, non-print media, social media, blog, website, etc., or which are used for displays, advertising purposes, etc.

Permission is granted for "one-time, non-exclusive" use in one publication or display.

Upon production, a copy of the article, book, video, etc. in which a photograph or document is used must be sent to JCHS for inclusion in our research library.

All public use of JCHS photographs must be acknowledged as "from the collection of Jefferson County Historical Society."

Additional Information

All rates are calculated as per image unless otherwise noted.

Patrons are eligible to receive a 10% discount off the total price of incurred usage fees, provided they purchase or have an active JCHS membership.

Postcards, posters, calendars, or other single-use mass reproduced products are subject to special contractual agreements with JCHS. For requests involving unusual uses, JCHS archivist or executive director may negotiate other fee conditions, including royalty fees or percentage of sales.

Licensing of JCHS publication rights including books, magazines (in whole or in part) and website content are subject to special contractual agreements with JCHS on a case-by-case basis.
